11. Read the given passage and answer the question that follow.

A major difference between the two superpowers and their respective Empires was that the Roman empire was culturally much more diverse than that of Iran. The Parthians and later the Sasanians the dynasty's that ruled Iran in this period ruled over a population that was largely Iranian. The Roman empire by contrast was a mosaic of territories and cultures that were bound together by a common system of government. Many languages are spoken in the empire but for the purpose of Administration Latin and Greek were the most widely used is the only languages

The upper classes of the East spoke and wrote in Greek, those of the West in Latin and the boundary between these broad language areas ran somewhere across the middle of the Mediterranean, between the African provinces of Tripolitania (which was Latin speaking) and Cyrenaica (Greek speaking). All those who lived in the empire were subjects of a single ruler, the emperor, regardless of where they lived and what language they spoke.

1. How would you differentiate the Roman empire from Iran? Write at least two differences. 2
2. Name two dynasty's who ruled over Iran during this period. 1
3. Which Empire was bound Together by a common system of Government? 1
